A VIEW CALLED FOR.

The Work on Shenandoah Creek is Half Completed.

Notices were to-day served upon John H. Pollard, of Ashland, engineer for the P. & R. C. & I. Co.; Thomas Baird, superintendent for the Kelley Run Coal Company, and the Board and Highway Committee of the Borough Council, to meet at the Shenandoah creek to-morrow and inspect the work that has been done by Contractor J. J. Bridgman towards deepening the channel and clearing it of the refuse that led to the nuisance complaints by residents of the First ward. Contractor Bridgman claims that the work has been half completed and he wants to be paid the proportionate share of the contract price. The Board of Health is to hold a special meeting to-morrow night to pass upon the claim, and a view of the work done by the interested parties has been called for in order that the Board may pass upon the claim intelligently.

Parade Party.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. James, at 314 South Jardin street, was the scene of a brilliant farrowed gathering last evening, in honor of their guests, Misses Florence Dietrich and Millie Dean. Games and vocal and instrumental music were indulged in until the midnight hour, when a supper was served. The table was beautifully decorated and laden with the delicacies of the season. Among the guests were Misses Libbie, Agnes and Maggie Bainbridge, Lizzie and Wendelline Reese, Emily and Lizzie Jones, Eliza Griffiths, May Dasta, Ethel Albright, Lydia Broughall, of Ellensburg, Gustie Haglund, Maggie Williams, Mattie Edwards, Girardville, Mrs. D. R. James, and Messrs. Michael McDonald, Girardville, Owen Coyle, Brownsville, John C. McGinnis, Harry Reese, Mark Edwards, Daniel Griffiths, John Bainbridge, Howard Dodson, Edward Banks, George James, Alfred Millchapp, Harry Rosky, William Meyer, Mahanoy City.

To Open a Kindergarten.

Misses Agnes D. Dodson and Willie A. Houser, two well known young ladies of town, have completed all arrangements for opening a kindergarten in the lecture room of the Presbyterian church, on South White street. The object of this school is to give children who have not reached school age a knowledge of the rudiments of letters taught in the public schools, and thus enable them to make more rapid advancement when they enter public school. As our town is a very progressive one, and anything for its advancement is heartily taken hold of by its people, we predict a very successful year for the young ladies, whose term commences in September.

Case Dismissed.

Six boys ranging in ages from 10 to 14 years, were arrested by Policemen Heaton, Mulvey and Urrait last night and arraigned before Justice Toomey on a charge made by John Costello, of Passaic, N. J. The boys were Frank Gueyney, Peter Jenko, Anthony Falter, Thomas Mulcahey, Peter Oaviech and John Skevch. Costello, the complainant, and his wife were driving along the highway near the Cambridge colliery last evening when Mrs. Costello was struck upon the head by a stone, a painful wound being inflicted. The boys arrested were in the vicinity at the time. Each denied having thrown the stone and no evidence was produced to prove that any of them did throw it. Justice Toomey discharged them.

A Welcome Party.

A party was given last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel E. Brennan, on North Main street, as a welcome to their daughter, Miss Katie Brennan, who has returned from a two months visit to relatives in Philadelphia. Among the young folks who enjoyed the pastime of the evening and the excellent supper that was served were Katie and Josephine Brennan, Nellie McGuire, Mary Mitchell, Mame Wells, Agnes Reilly, Agnes Cardin, Katie and Mary Lambert, Lucy Lynch, Anna Schields, Nellie Shortall, Ruth Reolman, Gertrude Norris, Margaret Maley, Rose Dougherty, Bessie Miles, Martin Delaney, Daniel Hobbs, Patrick Hihbert, Daniel Philip and Patrick Brennan, Michael Dougherty, Eddie and Daniel Langton, John and James Groody and Thomas Bettridge.

Opening Theatrical Season.

The Cactus Bell's Co. which appears at Ferguson's theatre September 2, the opening night, is one of the most successful companies on the road and is meeting with abundant success, packing the house nightly and giving one of the most refined entertainments, nothing bordering on vulgarity, giving nothing but a big class programme, some of the very best artists included in her company. The management of the theatre has done well to secure this star and company.

A Wife's Charges.

John Hopkins, of 300 West Cherry street, was arraigned before Justice Toomey last night on complaint of his wife, Margaret, who alleged assault and battery, desertion and non-support. The latter charges arose from the husband insisting upon removing the household effects from the family residence. The husband furnished $300 bail for trial at court.

The School Enrollment.

The enrollment of pupils for the public schools continued yesterday afternoon and to-day and it will likely continue from day to day for the next week or ten days, when the total enrollment will no doubt greatly exceed the figures of last year. Sixty-five tickets were issued at the office of Superintendent Cooper after the noon hour yesterday.

SHOT HALTS A FUGITIVE.

Policeman Hand Has an Exciting Experience With a Prisoner.

A JUMP FROM A CAR WINDOW!

The Officer Stopped the Train and Gave Lively Chase, While the Crew and Passengers Watched and Awaited the Return.

Policeman Hand, of the local paid police force, had an exciting experience yesterday afternoon while taking a prisoner named William Matalawicz to the Pottsville jail.

Matalawicz is one of three men arrested last July for committing robberies in the First ward. It will be remembered that one of his colleagues gave Policeman Heaton considerable trouble by repeatedly breaking out of the lockup. Yesterday Justice Toomey was notified that Matalawicz was under bail for the robberies, intended to skip from the town. Policeman Hand was assigned to re-arrest the man and did so without experiencing any trouble. Matalawicz was, apparently, a most willing prisoner and when on the way to Pottsville, on the 2:10 p. m. Pennsylvania railroad train, Policeman Hand did not think it necessary to handcuff the man. Nor, when Matalawicz asked permission to go to the lavatory in the car, when the train was approaching Wiggins station, did the policeman deem it necessary that he should accompany him. When the train stopped, however, the policeman heard a rattling of the window in the lavatory. He hastened to the place and entered it as Matalawicz's feet disappeared through the window. The train was just pulling out from the station. Hand seized the bell rope and the engineer promptly responded to the signal to stop. When Hand reached the station platform the fugitive had a start of about twenty-five yards and was running like a deer in the direction of Shenandoah. Hand shouted to the man to halt, but the command went unheeded and the officer drew his revolver and fired a shot in the air. This had the desired effect and Matalawicz stopped. He offered no resistance when Hand reached him and was taken back to the train, which remained in waiting during the few moments he chafed. Hand kept the snappers on his prisoner during the balance of the journey and landed him behind the bars of the Pottsville jail without additional trouble.

Later in the day he succeeded in obtaining bail to the amount of $500 and was released to appear before the next term of criminal court.

About a month ago the HERALD gave the first publication of the contemplated changes to be made by the Lehigh Valley Coal Company, in the vicinity of Lost Creek, which included the erection of a mammoth breaker to take the combined output of Packer Nos. 2, 3 and 4 collieries. As preliminary to these changes, to be made next year, a contract has recently been awarded to Thomas Keras, the Pottsville contractor, to change the tracks of the Lehigh Valley railroad at the vicinity of Lost Creek, to connect with the new mammoth breaker.

A NEW SLOPE.

Output at the Furnace Colliery to be Greatly Increased.

Work of extension which has been put under way at the old Furnace colliery, operated by Seaman and Gerber, promises to make the old place an important factor among the coal producers north of the Broad Mountain.

The agency through which the boom is expected is a new slope. It is to be sunk 90 yards on the Skidmore vein to tap the bottom split of the Mammoth vein in connection with the Gilbert colliery. The work was started last Saturday and the first set of timbers was put in place yesterday. It will take about three months to complete the work.

When the slope is sunk gangways will be driven through the dividing measures to tap the pillars and any solid coal that may be secured at the bottom split of the Mammoth vein. The slope is expected to increase the output of the Furnace colliery 200 cars per day.

A FINE PERFORMANCE.
Given by Welsh Bros.' Circus, Which Appears in This Town.

The Welsh Bros. show met with a hearty reception at both performances yesterday on Sandy's hill. Big crowds were in attendance, the day was an ideal one for outdoor exhibitions and this with the elegant entertainment presented caused jubility and good feeling to prevail all around. The performance was described in the Leader yesterday and it is therefore unnecessary to make any special comment. All of the acts are first class, skillfully executed and gorgeously costumed. The advertised balloon ascension and parachute jump was given at seven o'clock. It was a complete success. Mr. McEldale, the aeronaut, after ascending a height of about 1,500 feet, suddenly detached himself from the balloon and made a beautiful parachute flight, landing nearly at the point he left. It was a beautiful sight.—Daily Leader, Carbonate, Pa.

Reading's Rush Work on Cars.

Additional track room has also been provided in the car shop for repairing passenger cars, and during the fall and winter it is proposed to turn out 100 each month.

Struck the Mammoth.

'WELCOME TO HEROES

Pittsburg's Reception to the Famous "Fighting Tenth."

THE PRESIDENT'S TRIBUTE

Feeling Words of Praise For the Brave Volunteers.

WILL URGE MEDALS OF HONOR

For the Gallant Pennsylvanians Who Remained at the Front After Their Legal Term of Enlistment Had Expired—A Rebuke to the Anti-Expansionists Who Urge Them to Lay Down Their Arms

Pittsburg, Aug. 29.—President McKinley left Pittsburg last night at 1 o'clock for East Liverpool, O., a very weary man. The entire day had been spent under the most trying circumstances, and the president was almost worn out.

When the president retired on Sunday night his information was that the Tenth regiment would reach here at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, and arrangements were made accordingly. Upon arriving at 7:30 Mr. McKinley was told of the delay to the troop train and at once began work on his mail. After breakfast the president received a few callers and then was driven to Hotel Schenley, where he was met by the reception committee, and at 12:30 went to Allegheny to meet the regiment. Finding that the train was even later than expected, the party was taken to the residence of B. F. Jones, chairman of the Republican national committee in 1884, where an hour was spent.

When the president finally headed the procession that escorted the Tenth regiment from Allegheny to Schenley Park it was 3 o'clock. Along the five-mile march the president received an ovation that was practically continuous from the thousands of persons along the route.

Pittsburg's Greatest Demonstration. The reception tendered the returning soldiers will always be remembered in this city as one of the greatest demonstrations of patriotism that has ever taken place in this country. A fund of $55,000, donated by the generous citizens of Pittsburg and the surrounding towns, permitted the committee who had the affair in charge to make lavish preparations for the homecoming, and nothing was left undone that would show the "Fighting" Tenth how well their services for their country in foreign land were appreciated by the residents of their native state. The only thing lacking to make the day one of supreme happiness was the absence of the brave and well beloved Colonel Hawkins, who led the boys in all of their sufferings, but who was denied the privilege of marching at their head when they returned home to receive the plaudits of a grateful people.

The decorations of the streets and buildings were overwhelmingly rich and gorgeous and the five miles over which the parade took place was practically an unbroken line of flags, flowers, festoons and bunting. The reviewing stand of President McKinley and his staff of notables in Schenley park was a magnificent work of art, composed of silk plush and damask, all blended tastefully in the colors of the national emblem. Upon reaching Schenley park the column was reviewed by President McKinley, after which he proceeded to the music pavilion, where the exercises were held. Seats had been provided for 25,000 friends and relatives of the members of the Tenth in front of the music pavilion, but the column was filled long before the exercises began, and thousands were unable to secure even standing room within hearing distance.

An unlooked for incident occurred when the Tenth regiment filed in front of the reviewing stand in Schenley park. Shortly after the column began marching past the president the crowd on the hillside, which was immense, and contained many of the friends and relatives of the Tenth, commenced to surge forward and in a few moments the ropes and policemen were swept away and soldiers and friends were passing the stand en masse. The movement had no ugliness about it, but was just a spontaneous dash of friends for long absent loved ones.

After music by the Economy band Major Lee S. Smith called the meeting to order and Rev. T. N. Boyle, D. D., delivered the invocation. Governor William A. Stone was then introduced as chairman of the meeting and delivered an address of welcome in behalf of the state, concluding by introducing President McKinley, who spoke in substance as follows:

The President's speech.

Governor Stone and My Fellow Citizens: I am glad to participate with the families, friends and fellow citizens of the Tenth Pennsylvania volunteers in this glad reunion.

You have earned the plaudits not alone of the people of Pennsylvania, but of the whole nation. Your return has been the signal for a great demonstration of popular regard from your landing in the Golden Gate on the Pacific to your homecoming, and here you find a warmth of welcome and a greeting from joyous hearts which tell better than words the estimate of your countrymen and their high appreciation of the services you have rendered the country. You made secure and permanent the victory of Dewey. You added new glory to American arms. You and your brave comrades engaged on other fields of conflict have enlarged the map of the United States and extended the jurisdiction of American liberty. But while we share in the joy that is yours there remain with us softened and hallowed memories of those who went forth with you and were not found in your ranks today. Your noble colonel, devoted to his men, beloved by his command and respected by his superior officers, gave his life to his country with many others of his comrades. The nation sorrow with
